

REO

"The Car That Can Stand the Knocks"

The other day a man who had visited every Automobile agency in the city came back to the REO salesroom and said: "One of the things which has led me to buy a Reo is that you have not 'Knocked' any of the cars sold by your competitors."

Yes the REO has no "knocks" for anybody. Treat it right and you can drive from ocean to ocean and not hear a single "knock." Why then should its dealers be "knockers" with so many good points to "TALK"? They have no time to "KNOCK." Price up January 1st. COOPER MOTOR CO., Distributors, also of Moline Knight. Call and see this beautiful car which will be on our floor in a few days.

Read the following poem on the Reo written by Mrs. John Baron Burg, whose car has been driven over 75,000 miles and hasn't a single "KNOCK."

Christmas Problem Solved

I am in a quandary, I know not what to do
For I have as many children as the woman in the shoe.
For Christmas I feel to each taste I must cater,
Though dissatisfied whispers, no doubt I'll hear later,
Could I think of one gift of usefulness, beauty and duration,
To give pleasure to all, 't would be quite an inspiration.
The thought is a good one, and I cannot but feel,
The best thing to give them is an automobile.
I'll get it right now, and not wait nor delay,
But pay for it at once, and put it away,
And thus wisely avoid all the flurry and worry,
Incident to selections made in a hurry.
Of course their choice will fall on the "REO"
What other car is there that offers such a trio?
Simplicity, gracefulness and perfect construction,
Which insures its upkeep to the utmost reduction.
One demonstration will its excellence reveal,
And prove that they want the REO-mobile.
